YOUR LIFETIME INCOME ESTIMATE

Your plan administrator has directed us, your plan's recordkeeper, to provide a lifetime income estimate that shows how much monthly income you could collect at retirement. This statement provides you with information about how much monthly income you could collect at retirement based on your current account balance. The estimated monthly payments in this statement are for illustrative purposes only; they are not a guarantee. Having this information now may help you plan how much money to save for your retirement.

$417,890.53 ACCOUNT BALANCE AS OF FEBRUARY 29, 2024	$2,507.34 MONTHLY PAYMENT AT 67 SINGLE LIFE ANNUITY	$2,089.45 MONTHLY PAYMENT AT 67 QUALIFIED JOINT & 100% SURVIVOR ANNUITY
--	--	--

Your account balance is shown in the table as of February 29, 2024. These estimates show how much money you could receive each month if you were to receive payments in one of the following two payment forms:

1. A single life annuity is an arrangement that pays you a fixed amount of money each month for the rest of your life. Following your death, no further payments would be made to your spouse or heirs. If you receive payments in this form, we estimate you would receive the amount shown in the table per month starting at retirement.
2. A qualified joint and 100% survivor annuity is an arrangement that pays you and your spouse a fixed monthly payment for the rest of your joint lives. In addition, after your death, this type of annuity would continue to provide the same fixed monthly payments to your surviving spouse for their life. If you receive payments in this form, we estimate you would receive the same amount per month. An annuity with a lower survivor percentage may be available, and reducing the survivor percentage (below 100%) would increase monthly payments during your lifetime, but would decrease what your surviving spouse would receive after your death.

LIFETIME INCOME ILLUSTRATIONS

STATEMENT PERIOD: 01/01/2024 - 02/29/2024

The following information is to help you understand these estimated monthly payments.

WHAT WE ASSUMED

- The estimated monthly payments in this statement assume that your account balance is 100% vested and, if you have taken a loan from the plan and you are not in default, the loan has been fully repaid.
- If you have taken a loan from the plan and the loan was defaulted, the estimated monthly payments in this statement do not include the value of your deemed loans.
- The estimated monthly payments in this statement assume that payments begin 02/29/2024 and that you are 67 on this date. Monthly payments beginning at a younger age would be lower than shown since payments would be made over more years. Monthly payments beginning at an older age would be higher than shown since they would be made over fewer years.
- The estimated monthly payments for a qualified joint and 100% survivor annuity in this statement assume that you are married with a spouse who is the same age as you (even if you do not currently have a spouse, or if you have a spouse who is a different age). If your spouse is younger, monthly payments would be lower than shown since they would be expected to be paid over more years. If your spouse is older, monthly payments would be higher than shown since they would be expected to be paid over fewer years.
- The estimated monthly payments in this statement are based on an interest rate of 3.87%, which is the 10-year constant maturity U.S. Treasury securities yield rate as of 02/01/2024, as required by federal regulations. This rate fluctuates based on market conditions. The lower the interest rate, the lower your monthly payment; the higher the interest rate, the higher your monthly payment.
- The estimated monthly payments in this statement are based on the gender-neutral mortality table specified in section 417(e)(3)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code, as required by federal regulations. That table reflects the average life expectancy of the population as a whole, and is applied without regard to your health, your family history, or your gender. Because your own life expectancy may be longer or shorter than average, the payments an insurance company would actually offer you may differ from the amounts shown.
- The estimated monthly payments in this statement are shown in today's dollars and are not adjusted for inflation. A fixed monthly payment that begins at the amount shown would buy less over time as prices rise, so the purchasing power of these payments would decline throughout your retirement.

WHAT THESE ESTIMATES DO NOT TELL YOU

Your actual retirement income may be materially different from the amounts shown.

These illustrations are not a guarantee, a promise of benefits, or a prediction of what you will receive. The monthly income you can actually buy at retirement will depend on your account balance and investment returns between now and then, your age and marital status when payments begin, interest rates and insurer pricing at that time, and the annuity contracts available to you. The estimates also do not reflect any fees, commissions, or expenses an insurer may charge, or any taxes you may owe on the payments.

This plan is not required to offer an annuity, and showing these estimates does not mean the plan offers one. If your plan does not offer an annuity distribution option, you would need to purchase an annuity outside the plan, on the terms available to you at that time. Neither your employer, the plan, nor your recordkeeper guarantees the amounts shown.

HOW THIS DIFFERS FROM THE RETIREMENT READINESS PROJECTION

If your statement includes a Projected Retirement Income section in the appendix, that projection is a separate retirement readiness estimate produced by a planning tool. It uses different assumptions from this illustration — including future contributions, an assumed rate of investment return, your chosen retirement age, outside assets, and estimated Social Security benefits. The estimates on this page use only your current account balance together with the interest rate and mortality assumptions prescribed by federal regulation. The two figures are calculated on different bases and are not comparable.

PLAN EXPENSES

AMOUNT

Administrative Expenses: Plan-level costs for the services that keep the plan operating. These cover recordkeeping and daily account valuation, the participant website and call center, statement production and delivery, annual compliance testing, Form 5500 preparation, and trustee and custodial services for plan assets. [PLAN SPONSOR] pays [PORTION] of these costs directly; the remainder is allocated among participant accounts [PRO RATA BY BALANCE].		Individual Expenses: Charges for services you elected or that apply only to your account. They are deducted directly from your account balance rather than shared across the plan.
Plan Administrative Fee	-$14.50	Investment Advisory Fee	-$20.59
Recordkeeping, compliance testing, Form 5500, participant support		[ADVISOR NAME] managed account service: portfolio construction, ongoing rebalancing and advice. [0.35%] annually, billed quarterly
Investment Maintenance Fee	-$2.00	Per Participant Fee	-$4.00
Trustee and custodial services; maintenance of the plan's investment lineup		Flat quarterly charge for account-level recordkeeping and statement delivery
Subtotal	-$16.50	Subtotal	-$24.59
		TOTAL EXPENSES PAID FROM YOUR ACCOUNT	-$41.09

The amounts above are the dollar amounts actually deducted from your account during this statement period. They do not include investment-level expenses — each fund's operating expense ratio is taken out of the fund's return rather than charged to you separately, and is described in that fund's prospectus.

YOUR RIGHT TO DIRECT INVESTMENTS

You may direct how your account is invested among the investment alternatives offered under the plan, and you may change that direction for both your existing balance and your future contributions. Instructions may be given through the participant website or by calling customer service on any day the New York Stock Exchange is open. Instructions received before [4:00 P.M. ET] are processed using that day's closing price; instructions received later are processed on the next business day.

The following plan-level limitations apply to that right:

- Frequent trading. To protect other participants from the cost of short-term trading, [A ROUND TRIP INTO AND OUT OF THE SAME INVESTMENT WITHIN 30 DAYS] will block new purchases in that investment for [60 DAYS]. Individual funds may also impose their own trading restrictions and redemption fees, which are described in each fund's prospectus and applied in addition to the plan's rule.
- Minimums and increments. Investment elections and exchanges must be made in whole percentages totaling 100%, and are subject to a minimum of [$0 / 1%] per investment.
- Amounts you may not direct. [LIST ANY RESTRICTED SOURCES — for example, employer contributions held in the plan's default investment until vested, amounts pledged as collateral for an outstanding loan, or balances subject to a qualified domestic relations order.] If none apply to your plan, this line reads "None."
- Employer securities. [IF THE PLAN HOLDS EMPLOYER STOCK, describe any limits on buying, selling, or diversifying it, including any required holding period, trading window, or insider-trading blackout that applies to you.] If the plan holds no employer securities, this line reads "Not applicable."
- Blackout periods. Your ability to direct investments, request a loan, or take a distribution may be suspended temporarily during a blackout period, such as a change of recordkeeper or a change to the plan's investment lineup. You will receive written notice at least 30 days before any blackout period begins.
- If you give no instructions. Contributions for which we have no investment direction on file are invested in the plan's qualified default investment alternative, [QDIA NAME]. You may move those amounts to any other investment alternative under the plan at any time, subject to the limitations above, and no transfer fee or restriction applies during your first [90] days in the default investment.

The plan intends to comply with ERISA section 404(c). To the extent it does, plan fiduciaries may be relieved of liability for losses that result from your own investment instructions. Contact your plan administrator or see your summary plan description for the full terms of these limitations.

IMPORTANT NOTICES AND DISCLOSURES

To help achieve long-term retirement security, you should give careful consideration to the benefits of a well-balanced and diversified portfolio.

Spreading your assets among different types of investments can help you achieve a favorable rate of return, while minimizing your overall risk of losing money. This is because market or other economic conditions that cause one category of assets, or one particular security, to perform very well often cause another asset category, or another particular security, to perform poorly. If you invest more than 20% of your retirement savings in any one company or industry, your savings may not be properly diversified. Although diversification is not a guarantee against loss, it is an effective strategy to help you manage investment risk.

In deciding how to invest your retirement savings, you should take into account all of your assets, including any retirement savings outside of the Plan. No single approach is right for everyone because, among other factors, individuals have different financial goals, and different tolerances for risk. It is also important to periodically review your investment portfolio, your investment objectives and the investment options under the Plan to help ensure that your retirement savings will meet your retirement goals.

You may receive additional information throughout the year to communicate requirements of the Pension Protection Act of 2006. To the extent possible, all required information will be mailed with or incorporated into your quarterly statement. Please refer to the summary of your plan for specifics with regard to your plan, such as additional vesting or contribution allocation information, such as integration with the taxable wage base. If your plan allocates certain contributions using an offset based on the Social Security taxable wage base (permitted disparity), please see your SPD for a more detailed explanation.

For more information on individual investing and diversification, you may visit the Department of Labor's website at: <https://www.dol.gov/agencies/ebsa/laws-andregulations/laws/pension-protection-act/investing-and-diversification>

Data not Available. The Personal Rate of Return is calculated on a time-weighted cash flow basis. A full period of financial history is required to calculate this Rate of Return. For accounts with a zero balance at either the beginning or end of the time period shown, your Rate of Return will be calculated once full financial history is available.

SECTIONS BEYOND THE CORE STATEMENT, SELECTED BY YOUR PLAN

The sections that follow are optional modules. They are not part of the core statement every plan receives; the combination shown here reflects what your plan selected.

BALANCE HISTORY

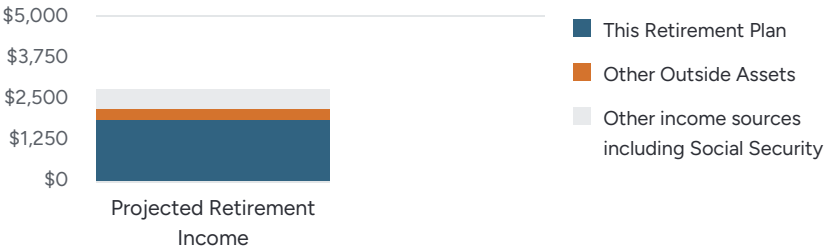

PROJECTED RETIREMENT INCOME

PROJECTED INCOME/MO

$2,821

Goal: $5,000/mo

56% OF THE WAY THERE!

Would you like to improve your retirement income projection?

You can increase your monthly projected income from $2,821 to $3,100 by contributing an extra $30 more each month.

THIS PROJECTION IS NOT THE FEDERALLY REQUIRED LIFETIME INCOME ILLUSTRATION

The figures above are a retirement readiness estimate produced by a planning tool. They use different assumptions from the Lifetime Income Estimate in the core section of this statement — including your expected future contributions, an assumed rate of investment return, your target retirement age, outside assets you have entered, and estimated Social Security benefits. The Lifetime Income Estimate uses only your current account balance, with the interest rate and mortality assumptions prescribed by federal regulation. The two amounts are calculated on different bases, are not comparable, and neither is a guarantee.

Update your retirement profile details using the My Retirement Analysis tool available to you on the participant web at www.myretirementplan.com. Please refer to the appendix in this report for information about details and assumptions used in this computation.

Elective deferrals are limited annually under IRC §402(g), combining pre-tax and Roth. The limit applies to you as an individual across all employers, not to this plan alone. The figures above include only deferrals recorded on this plan during the calendar year. If you deferred to another employer's plan this year, your remaining capacity is lower than shown. Your catch-up limit reflects the higher limit available for ages 60 through 63 under SECURE 2.0 §109. Catch-up contributions are made on a Roth basis where required for participants above the prior-year FICA wage threshold.
